FEBRUARY 2009

Welcome to Foundation/Life Member's Day

(Qualifying for Lindenberg)

LEON LIST - FOUNDER

64 years ago LEON LIST, licensee of the Steyne Hotel, Manly, and founder of the Lizards Golf Club, led his handful of recruits to the 1st tee at Palm Beach and was heard to utter "This is pretty good – why don't we make it a regular thing?"

Before settling at our current home at North Turramurra the Lizards have held monthly events at Avalon (for over 40 years), Bayview, Rouse Hill, Villawood and Chatswood. The Lizards tradition is upheld today by our current group of life members; Bill Sheehan, Garry Bird & Andy Warner.

Ian Massey made the most of his day as stand-in handicapper to record his first win since July 2006 and his first podium finish at North Turramurra. He scored a handy 23 points on the back nine to easily pull away from the field.

Brian Ellis continued his recent good form with a healthy 40 point effort. His handicap is getting low enough to be taken seriously!

Visitor Brian Heap caught the handicapper on the trot and snuck in with 41 points of his first up handicap of 18. Good luck trying to start off 18 next time Brian. Our other visitor, Tim Small improved his score by 6 shots over his effort in June 2008. A few more rounds like that and he'll be challenging for the top prize.

Fines of the Day

- | | |

| Ivan Tiltins | Caused a security scare at Kingsford-Smith Airport last Thursday when he tried to smuggle a miniature black poodle into arrivals hidden in a hand bag |
